Locations:

Prague, Czech Republic: 3 days

- Why visit: Great scenery. You will feel like you are walking in an old city with rugged small streets that was preserved in time. Make sure to wear sneakers and you will be able to explore so many hidden treasures from this gem of a city. You will stumble across so many interesting places to visit. Let yourself get lost in this amazing city.
- Top recommendations:
  - Old Town Square with the Astronomical Clock is a site to see
  - Prague is the original home of the Pilsner beer- enjoy several
  - The Charles Bridge
  - Enjoy a charcuterie and beer on the top of the hill at the Strahov Monastery
  - Book a beer spa at the Prague Beer Spa Bernard
  - See if you can catch a concert at the Prague Opera House
- Things to pass on:
  - The water cruises

Dublin, Ireland: 3 days

- Why visit: The culture, pubs and whiskey. For an add-on trip I recommend only exploring Dublin for 3 days, if you would like to add two days on, and would like to see another city, I recommend Kilkenny. Kilkenny is about an hour from Dublin (you can take a train) and has great culture, history, food and sights.
- Top recommendations:
  - The Guinness Storehouse
  - Kilmainham Goal
  - Dublin Castle
  - St. Patrick's Cathedral
  - The Temple Bar Area
  - Teeling Distillery
  - Jameson Distillery

Amsterdam, Netherlands

- Why visit: The sites, experiences and history are plentiful in Amsterdam. This city is also walkable, so get on those sneakers. You can take the train or fly from Munich to Amsterdam.
- Top recommendations:
  - Anne Frank House- you must get advance tickets
  - Heineken Experience
  - Red light district
  - Get some French fries with unique sauces
  - Walk through the Jordann area of Amsterdam
